

25 GREAT FUNDRAISING IDEAS

1. Speak at clubs or organizations you are a member of and ask for a donation.
2. Hold a bake sale.
3. Ask a restaurant or bar to donate a portion of one day's income to your fundraising (you publicize the LLS Day to everyone you know).
4. Hold a garage sale.
5. Provide a service (babysitting, dog walking, house cleaning, etc.) in exchange for a donation.
6. Hold a dinner party at your home in exchange for donations.
7. Organize a dress down day at work – employees can dress casually on a specific day in exchange for a donation.
8. Ask friends, significant other, and parents to send a fundraising letter to their friends and associates on your behalf.
9. Create a gift basket with wine, food or other goodies and hold a door prize drawing.
10. Put all your change in a jar and then roll the coins and use the money toward your fundraising goal.
11. Email your friends, family and co-workers to follow up with those who haven't sent in a donation.
12. Ask your employer to donate a day off that you can raffle off at work.
13. Bachelorette Party or Bachelor Auction.
14. Ask your house of worship if you can speak about your fundraising or include your LLS participation in the newsletter.
15. Ask vendors who you do business with for a donation.
16. Return bottles and cans and donate the funds.
17. Offer to write your donor's names on parts of your body (head, arms, legs) during the event. The better the donation, the better the body part.
18. Sell arts and crafts and donate the funds.
19. Publicize your efforts in your college alumni magazine.
20. Publicize your efforts in your office newsletter.
21. Hold a silent auction and have local businesses and restaurants donate their goods and services.
22. Buy donuts for breakfast (or get them donated) and sell them every Monday morning at work or school.
23. Auction off your unwanted but valuable items on E-Bay (or get donated items to auction off).
24. Provide pizza every Friday for lunch at work – take donations for each slice (don't forget to get the pizza donated!).
25. Organize a TV or Movie night- have everyone over for popcorn and snacks and they donate to you what they would pay for a movie ticket (idea: place bets on the winner of a reality show!).
