

10 SUPER FUN VIRTUAL FUNDRAISING IDEAS!

- Hold a virtual bike ride with a Peloton – ride on Facebook Live and have people pledge for each mile – a participant did this recently and raised $8000 – now that’s a lot of miles.
- Hold a Burpee challenge – get pledges for each burpee that you do – and get fit at the same time.
- Put out a timed challenge to raise XXX amount in 30 minutes – a candidate put out a challenge that if she raised $1000 in 30 minutes her husband would eat some DaBomb hot sauce! It could also be take a pie in the face, shave your head etc...
- Host a virtual happy hour – people donate to “attend” and bring their own cocktail – ZOOM works great for this!
- Host a virtual mixology class – know a bartender who is not working right now who might like to donate their expertise – charge a fee to attend and learn something new.
- Host an online party...Pampered Chef, Scentsy, Norwex, Tastefully Simple, etc. The list goes on and on! Your party host will typically donate a % back of your party sales to your organization.

- 💧 Host a virtual Game Night! Have everyone “bring” a beverage and appetizer to share, play festive music and charge an admission fee. Check out these ideas:
<https://www.oprahmag.com/life/a32022684/virtual-game-night/>
- 💧 Host an online auction – bourbon baskets, quarantine kit of puzzles, board games and snacks, wine basket, etc... - people can bid online and you can do a “social distance drop off”
- 💧 Raffle off a “local” basket – support local businesses by having team members purchase and then donate gift cards from local bars, restaurants etc... and raise funds by raffling it off
- 💧 Cyber Trivia – Hold an online trivia night. Charge an entry fee for participants to play.

The opportunities are endless – be sure to share what fun things you come up with!